Report of Action for Exploitation

Through the dissemination activities of the project new possible stakeholders were reached in order to achieve a successful exploitation of the results.

The important chances for the exploitation of the results of the project, was during the events of the project, Conference, Press Conference, and Workshop, were through the presentation of the various aspects of the project possible stakeholders were reached, other interested in technology, language learning, hearing impaired learning.

Apart from the collaboration with the General Secretariat of the Ministry of Education, a new collaboration came up with the Department of Special Education of the Greek Pedagogical Institute, where the purpose is to exploit the results of the Enfora Project.

Also there were conversations with the project partners, regarding investigating the national market interest, and the possible commercial exploitation of the main products in each project partner country. According to the royalty agreements which were discussed with the project partners, each partner can exploit the results of the project which have been produced in the national language of each partner.
